

STEP EIGHT

Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.

AMAZING FREEDOM

As it says in the first paragraph of the chapter on Step 8 in the book Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, "Steps Eight and Nine are concerned with personal relations." Well, since I had managed to mess up most of my personal relations before getting sober, there were a few roadblocks for me after completing Step 7 and readying myself for Step 8:

- 1) allowing fear of Step 9 to creep in; and
- 2) allowing my new-found freedom of fun, friends and fellowship to keep me from facing my step work.

Thankfully, my sponsor reminded me that we had already discussed most of the people I had harmed when discussing my Step 5, and she assured me that it wasn't going to take me long to write a list of names. Still, I procrastinated for a few more weeks. Then someone in a meeting had a printout of all the "step prayers." Who knew there was a prayer for every step!? The Eighth Step Prayer is: "God, please remove my fears and show me your truth. Show me all the harms I have caused with my behavior and help me be willing to make amends to one and all. Help me to be willing to go to any lengths for victory over alcohol."

It only took me approximately 30 minutes to write my Step 8 list after reciting the prayer. Looking back now, I can have a good laugh, because it was clear I didn't have many friends left to make amends to, since I had driven most of my good friends away over the years with my inappropriate behaviors. Also, my new sober friends and my sponsor both assured me that making amends to drinking acquaintances wasn't necessary and could actually put me in a dangerous situation. I wasn't about to let anything keep me from my new-found sober life!

Of course, the second part of the step, "... became willing to make amends to them all," was a little tougher nut to crack. Once again, my sponsor's knowledge of how to work the steps was essential. She taught me that amends were to help clear away the wreckage of my past and that it was not simply saying "I'm sorry." That phrase meant little to my family and friends anymore since they were all more than a little tired of hearing those two words from me. My sponsor also taught me that I needed to pray for willingness to face the people from my list and let them know that I would try my very best not to repeat these behaviors in the future as I continued a life of sobriety.

It is an amazing freedom to work the steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. As I heard quoted in a meeting, "the steps are not a punishment." Now, whenever I start to hem and haw about any of the steps, that statement comes to mind. There is a passage from the Big Book which helps me too, which is: "In thinking about our day, we may face indecision. We may not be able to determine which course to take. Here we ask God for inspiration, an intuitive thought or a decision. We relax and take it easy."

We relax and take it easy.... what a beautiful aspiration for our daily lives!

TRADITION EIGHT

Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

PRACTICING TRADITION EIGHT IN OUR LIVES

I have noticed over the years that meetings that do not talk about the traditions sometimes find themselves in some kind of conflict or disunity over an issue. We need the “glue” of the traditions to hold us together and remind us of what is important . . . and what is NOT important. What’s more, as I got more familiar with these traditions, I discovered their guidance is helpful in my personal life, family life, and other relationships. Who doesn’t appreciate keeping “principles above personalities”; no longer seeking “prestige, money, or property (stuff)”; and avoiding useless “controversies” on outside issues. All of these are topics the traditions cover. The traditions keep us focused on carrying the message and never for our own personal gain. As the traditions play out meeting after meeting, I found them bumping up against some of my own worst defects, and, thereby, enabling me to change just by experiencing the process of how meetings happen in AA. I would like to suggest that you encourage the meetings you attend to visit the traditions regularly—they are every bit as wise and healing as our treasured 12 steps.

Which brings us to Tradition 8. Our groups are to remain forever non-professional. This affects me in a highly personal way. When a person walks into a meeting, their degrees or jobs or training are left at the door. No one is checking to see what kind of car one drives, or where one lives, or how much money you have. This tradition in AA has helped me face how much I have sought to traffic in just such types of expertise. I want to know these things about people so I can use them to my advantage. Maybe in the future they can help me with some problem. Or if they are an “expert” in the field of alcohol or drug abuse maybe they can give me some extra insight. It is important that I never set up other AA members as experts, treat certain members as special gurus, or believe old-timers know all the answers. (Well, maybe they know most of the answers!)

I do not get to traffic in that defect in AA. We are on a first name only basis; the only thing important is sharing one’s experience, strength, and hope of this program. No one wears a badge declaring their professional position. I am being guided not to rely on any one expert but to instead look to the whole group for insights and help. This keeps me from relying on any one person for my recovery. Nor can I blame any one person for my failures. I discovered that the person walking into the meeting with one day clean has something valuable to teach me. So, too, the homeless person sitting behind me.

And because we AA members are non-professionals, we never do what we do for money. As soon as money gets involved prospective members become rightly suspicious: “Who’s making a buck off my misery?” If AA members were to be paid for service work, soon we’d all be squabbling over how much each person is paid. Resentments would instantly crop up. Tradition 8 guarantees we do not get into that swamp. We don’t get paid. All we do is be of service to other suffering alcoholics.

Yet we do hire people in AA as special service workers when we reach the district, regional, national, and world levels of our program. At those levels we need full-time workers to do mailings; keep offices open that serve all the groups in an area; provide access to locations, dates, and times of meetings; and assist in making sure phones are answered 24-7.

The more we bring these traditions into our meetings, the more effective we become in our primary goal to carry the message. The more I bring these traditions into my life and relationships, the more effective I become at carrying the personal message of the joy and peace of mind recovery has brought to my life.

THOUGHTS FROM THE BOARD

SINCE 1981

When I walked through the doors of my first AA meeting in 1981, I felt a lot of crazy inside. I was a college student, codependent, working two+ jobs, a schemer, and a binge drinker. I had one face for my professors and employers. My other side came out after I took my first drink. Once that happened, any plans or promises I had made were off the table.

I was co-dependent; my goal was to keep my sweetheart sober. I thought I was deep down crazy. The idea of spending a month-long in the alleged Cadillac treatment centers on a lake sounded like a resort. I packed my running shoes, skates, bikini, and away I went. Upon completion, I could not go back to my addict and alcoholic roommates, one who committed suicide when I was 6 months sober. Carolyn B., the most active person I was ever to meet in the Fellowship, rented me a room in her bedroom attic. I went back to work. Carolyn took me to 90+ meetings in 90 days. There I was loved sober.

Once sober, I expected my life to be sunshine and roses. A year later, I became restless, irritable, and discontent, so I did another 4th and 5th Step. I found out I was dishonest. The cure lay in Steps 6 & 7, I had to tell the truth whenever I lied. As I grew up in the Fellowship, I continued to complete a 4th and 5th every year for decades.

Carolyn was founding the St. Paul Speaker Meeting and asked me for $20 to become a founder too. I thought that would decimate my 99 cents L'eggs pantyhose budget. I gave her the $20 and typed whatever she asked to get the meeting established. In AA, I found I wanted to be a giver, like the best people I met. Whatever I gave, came back tenfold.

Some years later I married an alcoholic. He drank, moved out, drained my savings account, and changed his mind about having a child when I was seven months pregnant. I took it well, until the night he came over for dinner to discuss matters. He called me a pig. I picked up a long bread knife and chased him out of the apartment yelling obscenities. Defects remained. I was so glad he could move fast. I was able to begin my MBA program and my AA friends babysat while I completed a way to increase my income. Life went well for me. I graduated, landed a great job, bought a nice house, and was able to have women stay in my spare bedroom.

For the past 42 years, the Promises came true, along with the realities of life, 8 years as a single parent, deaths and things not always going as planned. At every rough patch, I doubled down on AA for strength, and have been able to help others not drink going through the same tough things as me. The longer I am sober, the more I realize how much I need to continue to learn to maintain my serenity and peace of mind.

Then Covid struck and stayed. Fellow members and friends began to suffer from depression, loneliness, and agoraphobia. For some, the effects still linger. Length of sobriety was not an issue; young and old were being afflicted with the enforced isolation that Covid wrought. The chapter on Step 8 in Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions promises "the end of isolation from our fellows and God." To get there, we can create a 4th Step inventory of assets to help improve our emotional state of mind.

Our founders were aware of the emotional harm we had inflicted on ourselves and directed us in the 12x12's Step 4's short form to look at our assets. In Step 4, sponsors are reminded to tell the newcomer of their assets. Step 8th is clear: "In many instances we shall find that though the harm done others has not been great, the emotional harm we have done ourselves has. Very deep, sometimes quite forgotten, damaging emotional conflicts below the level of consciousness. At the time they may have discolored our personalities and altered our lives for the worse."

With this in mind, we can create a 4th Step focusing on assets and strengths. For a simple list, here are the 12 Principles of AA found on a medalion given to me by my late brother:

St. Paul & Suburban Area Intergroup Representatives' Meeting Minutes, July 18th, 2023 7:30 pm

1. Opened with the Serenity Prayer, Introductions, and read the primary purpose of Intergroup
2. Approved prior month's minutes (motion: Janice K. second: Angie T.). Motion passed with a majority vote.
3. Financial Report, Bill C. - see Treasurer's Report for full details - Total contributions are up from May, but still below last year to date. Operational expenses were down due to bills that were pre-paid in May. Our prudent reserve balance is $48,681 and the goal is $60K. We are averaging approximately $2K less than we need to be in revenue (contributions and sales) to break even. Question from Hendrie G. about hiring an outside accountant to do the financials. We will touch on this also in Noah's report. If you have questions, please email treasurer@aastpaul.org.
4. Office Report - Noah LC - see Office Report for full details. Noah has resigned and we are hiring a new office manager.
5. Night Owl Report - Rachel P - There are currently 6 open shifts, which are listed on the Intergroup website. If you're interested in helping out, please contact the committee. at nightowl@aastpaul.org. Orientation is on the 3rd Saturday @ 10AM.
6. Update from the Board - Janice K. We discussed finances, recurring online contributions, and Kelly's candidacy for the alt chair position.
7. District Reports - District 8 - no representative present. District 15 - Meg H. will be at the D15 meeting next month - July 24th. All are welcome. Supper at 6:30 at Christ Lutheran Church in Lake Elmo. Meg's presentation is available on the Area 36 website. They will be staffing the AA booth (Building B) at the Washington County Fair 10AM-10PM on August 2nd - 6th. Come check out horse races, petting zoo, and all the fun things! District 19 - no updates.
8. Intergroup Events: Ice Cream Social. August 19th. Time and location TBD. There will be ice cream, a newcomer intro speaker, and 4 long timer speakers. We need volunteers for this event. Contact chair@aastpaul.org if you would like to volunteer. Gratitude Night (Nov. 18th) - pulling things together toward the end of August. Looking for one male and one female 1-year speaker. Founders Day (Nov 25th) - SPI will be selling literature at this event.
9. Old Business - Feedback on NYE Event from Reps. Tom W. (Firing Line) Folks would prefer not to cross the river and not to have it in the downtown location. Have the dance be the main event but have speaker meetings be a side draw (more of a Fellowship event). Be sure to reach out to Recovery church to see if they are already planning an event. Good for the newcomers. Dale (SPOSM) - consensus that there are plenty of other opportunities for NYE recovery events in the cities. Chris L (OMD) - feedback was that no one was married to SPI having a NYE event and in general don't have one if it costs any money. Why don't we partner with Minneapolis to co-sponsor a NYE party if they are going to have one anyway? Angie T - been to our NYE party and it has been a lot of fun. It's always been a great time - a lot of people, a lot of fellowship. It's something we have always done, so it would be different not to do it. Off-site sales - we need to purchase a new card reader (and likely software) as ours is on the fritz. Stay tuned for more.
10. New Business - Vote for approval of Kelly's election to Alt Chair position. 14 - yes, 1 - no, 0 - abstentions. Approved. This means there is a vacancy for the board secretary position until next year. If you know anyone interested, please encourage them to step up for this position! Tony - alt DCM Dist 19 (Dakota County). They would like a SPI board member to attend their meeting on a monthly basis. 2nd Wednesday of every month in the Rosemount Community Center from 7-8PM. Mary U. volunteered to attend.
11. Group AA Announcements - none
12. Suggestions for next month's agenda: Please contact Kelly K at secretary@aastpaul.org.

The 12 PRINCIPLES OF THE PROGRAM

- Step 1: Acceptance
- Step 2: Faith
- Step 3: Surrender & Trust
- Step 4: Honesty
- Step 5: Courage
- Step 6: Willingness
- Step 7: Humility
- Step 8: Forgiveness
- Step 9: Freedom
- Step 10: Perseverance
- Step 11: Patience
- Step 12: Charity & Love

To do this 4th Step use these principles for your list. Start with Principle 1, Acceptance, and think of when you exercised acceptance. Write about what happened and how it made you feel. And so on for each Principle. You can use three columns per step if you like, 1) the principle, 2) what happened, and 3) how you felt. You will find your assets if you take the time to recognize them. When completed, remember to arrange a 5th Step to cement your positive attributes into your daily thoughts about you. May you find peace in your journey.
