WHAT we will be covering:

- How to do your job as a GSR (General Service Representative), District Committee Person (DCM or other District Officer), or Committee Chair.
- The upside-down triangle explained and your role in carrying the message.
- The nuts and bolts: How District and Area meetings work and how you participate.
- How you can participate on project committees at the District and Area level.
- Removing uncertainty and fear for those AA's interested in getting involved in general service.

WHAT we'll be doing:

- Providing you with practical training through short "how to" presentations, group discussion, and sharing by past trusted servants.
- Learning about the practical responsibilities of trusted servants and how we practice AA's spiritual principles in general service.

WHO should attend:

- Anyone new to or currently participating in general service. ALL ARE WELCOME!!
- Anyone serving at the group level (ie. bringing meetings into detox or correctional facilities, answering phones at Intergroup, etc.) who wants to learn about other service opportunities in AA.
